Dear Mr. President:

I write today to recommend Anna Gomez for the open Democratic Commissioner position at the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Her extensive experience coupled with a deep commitment to diversity and digital empowerment, make Ms. Gomez an exceptionally qualified candidate who warrants consideration.

Ms. Gomez has more than 25 years' experience working on technology and telecommunications issues in both public and private sector roles. Her track record of public service includes positions at the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA), FCC, National Economic Council, and Senate Commerce Committee. Notably, Ms. Gomez served as Deputy Administrator and Acting Administrator of the NTIA as well as senior management positions at the FCC including Chairman Kennard's Senior Legal Advisor.

Additionally, Ms. Gomez has demonstrated a clear track record of advancing diversity and inclusion. She is the current Chair and former Vice Chair of the FCC's Advisory Committee on Diversity and Digital Empowerment. This is in addition to her work at Wiley Rein LLP where she recently concluded a five-year term as Chair of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee.

For these reasons, I strongly recommend Anna Gomez as you consider nominees for the FCC.

Sincerely,

Doris Matsui
Member of Congress
